SHIPS TIED UP BY FUEL SHORTAGE

Coal Output Drop Hits Great Lakes Transportation.

BIG PLANTS FACE SHUTDOWN

Ford Motor Company May Be Forced to Suspend.

CLEVELAND. (Associated Press).—A few small Great Lakes freighters were laid up today on account of the fuel shortage and more carriers will have to be tied up soon, as the supply of bunker coal is low at all lake ports, vessel men here declare. Steamers are shifting from port to port to pick enough fuel.

Some coal was available at Ohio ports yesterday at from $8.50 to $10 per ton. At the latter price, vessel men say, small carriers cannot operate profitably. Some of the big fleets that have coal connections have less than a week's supply in sight and more vessels will be laid up by the end of this week unless coal comes forward more freely, vessel owners said.

DETROIT. (Associated Press).—The fuel shortage has forced the Detroit and Cleveland Navigation Company to remove two passenger boats from its service in the Detroit-Cleveland division, it was announced here this morning at the offices of the company. The day boat and the night boat are the services affected.

The company is maintaining nightly service between the two points and also between Detroit and Buffalo and still has about 10 days fuel supply on hand, it was stated.

The coal shortage has resulted in the price of bunker coal advancing to $8 and $9 a ton, against the usual price of approximately $2.50 at the mines.

BIG PLANTS MAY CLOSE

LANSING, Mich. (Associated Press).—A number of industries in Michigan face a fuel shortage that may compel shutdowns within the next few days, according to reports to the state public utilities commission.

The Ford Motor Company at Detroit reported it had a 14-day supply of coal and that unless fresh supplies come from unlooked for quarters, it might be forced to cease operations. Other automobile companies throughout the state reported they were in a critical condition.

According to indirect advices from Washington, it appears problematic whether enough coal can be sent to Michigan to keep even vital utilities in operation.

State geologists today continued their investigation of the feasibility of the state taking options on coal in the Saginaw district mines and operating the mines under state direction. Such a step has been sanctioned by the state administrative board.

COAL DISTRIBUTION

WASHINGTON. (Associated Press).—With specific plans drawn up for the distribution of coal during the existing emergency, Fuel Distribution Spencer was pressing the completion today of the federal organization through which the distribution of the entire output of the mines will be controlled.

As formally announced by Mr. Spencer last night the function of the federal organization will cover distribution among the railways, federal institutions and the states, with the governors of states to handle local supply. As a guide in the allocation of supplies, state fuel committees are to report at once on the consumption of coal by the various

CANDIDATES MUST GET LICENSE

Rule Against Political Literature In Streets.

COMMISSION, MANAGER ACT

Police Ordered to Arrest Violators of Ordinance.

A city ordinance prohibiting unlicensed distribution of advertising matter was held Thursday by the members of the city commission and C. A. Bingham, city manager, to include political advertising.

Under the provision of the ordinance any person desiring to distribute advertising matter of any kind, whether card or handbills, must obtain a bill poster's license. This costs $50.

This decision was made when men representing Arthur H. Day, candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, attempted to secure permission to pass political literature to voters on the street.

IS HELD VIOLATION

Bingham, Mayor Harold Cuninghame and Colonel John Harley are of the belief that the distribution of political literature is a direct violation of the law and unless the permit is obtained the distributors can be arrested.

Any distribution of political literature on the street is held by Bingham to be a violation of the law and the candidate who hands it out may be fined from $5 to $25, unless he has a permit.

Political literature belongs to the illegal class whenever it is distributed in such a way that it may be thrown upon the street and become a nuisance, Mayor Cunningham said.

Political candidates soliciting aid in their campaigns for county, district and state offices have been distributing cards and folders among the voters prior to the primaries next Tuesday.

Several of them have caused posters bearing their advertisement to be tacked upon telephone and other poles in the city. From there they soon find their way to the street where they create a nuisance, city officials said.

No political party or candidate is being discriminated against in this ruling, officials made it clear, as seekers from both parties have been distributing their campaign cards or literature.

Representatives of Day were told they could pass out all the literature they desired as long as it was distributed in houses or in stores where there is no chance that it will fall upon the streets.

AVOID DISCRIMINATION

To permit hand bills and other advertising matter to be distributed on the streets by political candidates and prohibit merchants from doing the same would be discriminatory, Mayor Cunningham held.

If merchants are to be prohibited from passing out advertising literature, the law must also be invoked against every other class of advertisers including candidates for political offices, he said.

Members of the police force have been notified that advertising literature must not be distributed on the streets unless the person so doing has a bill poster's license. They are ordered to arrest all offenders unless a license is obtained immediately.

Candidates take this to mean that they will be unable to distribute their cards except in private dwellings and in stores. This will handicap their campaigns, they say, as very few care to take out bill poster's license.

VOTE IS DELAYED

Lenroot Blocks Senate Action On Tariff Measure.

WASHINGTON. (Associated Press).—Plans of Republican and Democratic leaders for a final vote on the tariff bill this month were upset, at least temporarily, today by Senator Lenroot, Republican Wisconsin. Senator Lenroot said he was unwilling to consent to a unanimous consent agreement under which it would be possible for highly important changes in the bill, affecting the very policy of the national government, to be voted up without debate.

Breaking into the discussion about a unanimous consent agreement, Senator Gooding of Idaho, chairman of the Republican agricultural-tariff bloc, offered his resolution proposing an investigation into the financial interests of senators or their relatives in any industry, property or commodity affected by the adoption or rejection of any tariff duty proposed in the pending bill.

PICNIC TRAIN IN COLLISION

At least seven people are believed to have been killed and more than a score injured when two C. & N. trains met in head-on collision near Cincinnati, Tuesday. One of the trains was crowded with negro picnickers from a Cincinnati church. Rushing around a bend in the road, the engines were locked in death grips before either engineer could do anything to avert the accident. The locomotive of the picnickers' train was forced half way thru the first coach, mangleing many of the occupants. Picture shows firemen, policemen and citizens rescuing passengers, and (inset) the two engines locked together by the force of the impact.

FRANCE PLANS TO INVADE GERMANY

Penalty for Refusal to Pay Her War Debts

WILL SEIZE BIG INDUSTRIES

Rhineland Customs Barrier also Included in Scheme.

(BY WEBB MILLER.)

PARIS. (United Press).—France plans to invade Germany and seize and operate the coal and iron mines in the Ruhr basin if the Berlin government refuses to pay war debts and private claims.

Industries, now in the hands of Stinnes, Thyssen and Krupp, all multi-millionaires, will be operated by France until all obligations are met, the French press, outlining Premier Poincare's plan of coercion, announced today.

According to the plan, a Rhineland customs barrier against Germany will be set up and German officials replaced by Rhinolanders.

The Rhineland commission, in event the plan is carried out, would call for an election which would give the territory autonomy.

WOULD REDUCE DEBT

The Petit Parisien states that France is willing to reduce Germany's debt to $12,000,000,000 on condition that the German accepts definitely and the inter-allied debts are canceled.

The note of Lord Balfour which informed European allies that they must pay enough of their debts so that England may settle her war obligation with the United States, has played into the hands of France, it was believed here.

England has told France that she must pay because the United States wants her money from Great Britain. Now France is in a position to demand that Germany pay because England is demanding money from her.

BRITAIN WON'T BUDGE

LONDON. (Associated Press).—That Great Britain has no intention of suggesting any alteration of her financial obligations to the United States was emphasized in the house of commons today by Sir Robert Horne, chancellor of the exchequer, in reviewing the British position on German reparations.

"I wish to make it clear beyond all question of misapprehension," declared Sir Robert, "that we recognize to the full our obligations to pay our debts to the United States and we do not mean in any shape or form to evade that obligation."

TENNESSEE CANDIDATE FASTS AND PRAYS DAY BEFORE STATE PRIMARY

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—Abstaining from all food, Noah W. Cooper, reform candidate for the Democratic nomination as United States senator, observed Wednesday, the day preceding the primary, as a day of fasting and prayer.

Throughout the day and night only a few sips of water from his "gourd of righteousness" passed the "blue law" advocate's lips. He declares that hundreds of persons all over the state are fasting and praying with him.

Mr. Cooper has practically completed his collection of ninety-six gourd he says he will carry to Washington for presentation to the senators if he is elected. He has issued an invitation to members of the senate to attend a corn-bread and turnip-green dinner after his election.

Juvenile Holdup Gives Cop Squad Hurry-Up Call

Police rushed to Vine and Main streets shortly after noon Thursday, in answer to a hurried phone message from an anonymous party.

"A holdup," was the report.

The trip from headquarters to the scene of the crime was made in nothing flat in the new emergency police car, with Sergeant Edwards at the wheel.

When police arrived, the neighborhood was quiet, with the exception of—

Donald, Ditz, 9, 1077 S. Metcalfe, who was shedding tears as fast as the police car had travelled when it made the call.

"What's up?" the sergeant asked. Employees of the McComb grocery on the corner answered his query.

Two colored lads about fourteen years of age, had accented little Donald as he was near the grocery store on an errand for his mother. They threatened him with their fists and succeeded in relieving the youngster of 72 cents. Then they ran, the sergeant reports.

TRAIL OF BLOOD MURDER CLUE

Mysterious Slaying at Cleveland Probed by Police.

CLEVELAND. (United Press).—A trail of blood leading from an east side residence out onto the Pennsylvania railroad tracks, was the only clue today to the brutal murder of Charles Chapman, 27.

The body, with face and head horribly mutilated, was found by police near the tracks in a position which police believe, was supposed to indicate the man had been killed by a train.

The trail of blood from the house, however, showed clearly police said that Chapman had been the victim of a fiendish attack and had been dragged to the tracks by his slayer.

Authorities said reports had come to them early in the night that a hideous gambling party was in session near where Chapman's body was found.

They attached considerable importance to the report, constructing a theory that Chapman had been killed by a fight growing out of the party.

COW COSTS LIFE

Ohioan Dies from Exposure in Hunt for Bovine.

AKRON. (United Press).—John Yost, 30, Ohio pioneer, lost for two days in the woods near Millersburg, died from exposure in a hospital here today.

The aged man's wife, 83, is near death with a fractured hip, received when she fell over a log while searching the woods for her missing husband.

Yost went out three days ago to find a cow that had strayed into the woods. Nearly blind, he searched until sundown and then lost his way. He was found by a children's picnic party.

Mrs. Yost, who was found 24 hours later, has not been told of her husband's death.

REED LEADS LONG BY 7,879 VOTES

3,420 of 3,848 Precincts Heard From in Missouri Primary

WET CANDIDATE IS BEHIND

Returns from Other States Reported—Tennessee Baffling

ST. LOUIS. (Associated Press).—Senator James A. Reed, continued to maintain his lead in the Democratic senatorial contest when he led returns from Tuesday's primary began coming in early today with 3,420 out of 3,848 precincts in the state reporting he had a lead of 7,879 over Brockbridge Long, former third assistant secretary of state in the Wilson cabinet. The vote:

Reed 184,666; Long 176,787.

Additional returns received this morning showed that R. R. Brewster of Kansas City, endorsed by the rural organization, had increased his lead over William Sacks of St. Louis, who ran on a "wet" platform, to nearly 11,000 for the Republican senatorial nomination. The nomination of Brewster seemed assured as most of the remaining precincts to be heard from are in the rural districts in which he has polled many more votes than Sacks.

With 2,751 of the 3,848 precincts in the state tabulated the vote was:

Brewster 74,053; Sacks 63,922; Barrett 31,873; Proctor 24,392; McKinley, 24,002; Parker 10,972.

When told of the latest returns by The Associated Press, the former third assistant secretary of state said:

"I'll win out yet."

The St. Louis Globe-Democrat, an independent newspaper which fought Reed's candidacy, asserted Reed apparently had been victorious by 4,000 to 6,000 votes, adding that the districts yet unheard from "are remote from populous centers and their vote is small."

As the unreported precincts are in the rural districts, Long stated they would be favorable to him, while Reed supporters declared a number of the precincts, being in southwest Missouri, would poll a heavy Republican vote and that Democratic returns would be negligible.

The reported failure of a number of precinct officials, particularly in St. Louis, to count all the ballots, may make it necessary to await the official count, which probably will be started tomorrow in the majority of counties.

KU KLUX KLAN

OKLAHOMA CITY. (Associated Press).—A smashing victory for the Farmer-Union Labor element and opponents of the Ku Klux Klan in Oklahoma was indicated today when unofficial returns from 1,733 precincts of 2,837 in the state gave J. C. Walton, mayor of Oklahoma City, a lead of 21,000 votes over R. H. Wilson, superintendent of the state board of education and reputed to have had Klan support. Mr. Wilson refused to acknowledge defeat, however.

"It was a fight between the Ku Klux Klan and other secret orders on the one side and the Roman Catholic church and union labor on the other," said the biggest Democratic newspaper of Oklahoma City. Walton was strenuously opposed by this newspaper.

The Ku Klux Klan issue was openly injected into the campaign several days before the election.

The Catholic vote was consolidated for Walton, it was claimed by members of the church only after

THREE CONDITIONS

The three conditions of the proposals as accepted by the unions are:

- 1.—That both carriers and unions abide by labor board decisions.
- 2.—That carriers withdraw all lawsuits growing out of the strike and labor board rehearings granted on issues involved in the strike.
- 3.—That full seniority right be returned to the strikers.

The railway executives Tuesday turned down the president's proposals on the seniority question.

The acceptance of the unions also urged the necessity of the establishment of a national board of adjustment to relieve the labor board of all disputes except those involving wages.

In speaking of the effort to establish such an adjustment board the unions informed "the president that they looked 'merely with hope, and not with certainty' for the establishment of this essential part of the machinery to a-

STRIKE WON, SAYS WALL STREET

Rush of Men for Jobs Admitted By Unionists

TWO MEN KILLED IN RIOTS

Many Clashes Reported—Workers Accept Peace Plan.

(BY H. E. CAYLOR)

NEW YORK. (United Press).—Drive by eastern railroads to break the shopmen's strike, following rejection of President Harding's peace plan, noted carriers gains in their shops crafts forces today.

A rush of new men for jobs was reported by roads and admitted by union leaders. Many strikers entered shops as new men, E. M. King, general manager of the Lackawanna declared. The New York Central, the Lehigh Valley and the Central Railroad of New Jersey, reported considerable additions to their forces.

A. J. Bugar, union leader, denied there had been any break in strikers' ranks, pointed out that men seeking work now were "safely" first fellows who were afraid to apply at the beginning, and said many of his men had been quietly approached by the roads with offers of seniority if they would return.

Recruiting will go on, John G. Walzer, speaking for all eastern roads, said, until shop forces are at full strength.

Wall Street watched progress of the strike warily and pronounced the strike won for the carriers. Financial commentators unanimously approved the executives' rejection of Harding's proposal and said the men were beaten. Charles E. Mitchell, president of the National City Bank said:

"Reply of the railroads to President Harding was just what it should have been. There was nothing else to do."

UNION MEN

CHICAGO. (United Press).—Rail union chiefs today waited for the next step toward settlement of the rail strike, after accepting the Harding peace proposals with "reservations."

Altho the president's plans for settlement of the strike were bitterly opposed, the strikers accepted them, "for the good of the country."

Announcement that the Harding plan had been approved came early yesterday, but it was not until last night that the draft of the reply to the president was completed.

Final acceptance came after two days of bitter debate at a conference of 90 members of the policy committee of the shop crafts organization, the executive committee and Timothy Healy, president of the Brotherhood of Stationary Firemen and Oilers.

Interpretation of the proposals by the union leaders indicated they expect the Pennsylvania railroad to abandon its open shop fight.

In regard to this message he said:

"We understand that recognition of the validity of all decisions of the railroad labor board means, for example that in the case of the Pennsylvania Railroad, all employees will return to work under the wages and working conditions established in the decisions of the board and that the sole question of validity pending is the recognition of the labor board to determine the method of selecting accredited representatives of the employees—assuming that the railroad has appealed from the decision of the United States circuit court of appeals, which sustained the action of the labor board."

The Pennsylvania case occurred when the railroad denied the right of the shop crafts to represent its shop men in holding an election for such representatives the unions were given no place on the ballot.

The rail labor board ordered a new election. The Pennsylvania refused to comply. The Pennsylvania then obtained a temporary injunction restraining the labor board from issuing a public rebuke. The court of appeals made permanent. The court of appeals, a short time ago reversed the decisions of the lower courts.

In regard to this message he said:

"We understand that recognition of the validity of all decisions of the railroad labor board means, for example that in the case of the Pennsylvania Railroad, all employees will return to work under the wages and working conditions established in the decisions of the board and that the sole question of validity pending is the recognition of the labor board to determine the method of selecting accredited representatives of the employees—assuming that the railroad has appealed from the decision of the United States circuit court of appeals, which sustained the action of the labor board."

The Pennsylvania case occurred when the railroad denied the right of the shop crafts to represent its shop men in holding an election for such representatives the unions were given no place on the ballot.

The rail labor board ordered a new election. The Pennsylvania refused to comply. The Pennsylvania then obtained a temporary injunction restraining the labor board from issuing a public rebuke. The court of appeals made permanent. The court of appeals, a short time ago reversed the decisions of the lower courts.

THREE CONDITIONS

The three conditions of the proposals as accepted by the unions are:

- 1.—That both carriers and unions abide by labor board decisions.
- 2.—That carriers withdraw all lawsuits growing out of the strike and labor board rehearings granted on issues involved in the strike.
- 3.—That full seniority right be returned to the strikers.

The railway executives Tuesday turned down the president's proposals on the seniority question.

The acceptance of the unions also urged the necessity of the establishment of a national board of adjustment to relieve the labor board of all disputes except those involving wages.

In speaking of the effort to establish such an adjustment board the unions informed "the president that they looked 'merely with hope, and not with certainty' for the establishment of this essential part of the machinery to a-

UNION MEN

CHICAGO. (United Press).—Rail union chiefs today waited for the next step toward settlement of the rail strike, after accepting the Harding peace proposals with "reservations."

Altho the president's plans for settlement of the strike were bitterly opposed, the strikers accepted them, "for the good of the country."

Announcement that the Harding plan had been approved came early yesterday, but it was not until last night that the draft of the reply to the president was completed.

Final acceptance came after two days of bitter debate at a conference of 90 members of the policy committee of the shop crafts organization, the executive committee and Timothy

2,000 JOHNS MEET IN RALLY HERE

Throngs Assemble at Faurst Park for Festivities.

CABLE WELCOMES THROG

J. H. Goeke Delivers Principal Address.

Rain clouds which Wednesday night threatened to mar the fifth annual Johns picnic at Faurst park Thursday, passed over.

Bright sunshine reigned supreme under most favorable auspices, the day being warm, but relieved by a cooling breeze that attendance records for a Johns picnic was shattered.

More than 2,000 persons, it was estimated by John Kephart, secretary, were on the grounds at noon, when well filled lunch baskets were brought forth for a community dinner.

Athletic contests whiffed away the morning hours. Immediately after lunch, mass singing led by John T. Cotner, clerk of courts, opened the afternoon's program.

Congressman John L. Cable, of Lima, delivered the address of welcome and recounted in brief the growth of the organization.

A short response was made by John P. Marshall, of Bluffton, president.

The principal address of the afternoon was delivered by J. Henry Goeke.

ALLEGED FORGER TAKEN AT DEPOT

Van Horn Arrested as He is About to Depart From City.

C. H. Vanhorn, 29, 420 S. Metcalf-st., had a ticket for Kansas City in his pocket and his trunk was checked. At 10:30 o'clock Thursday morning, he was patiently awaiting the arrival of a Pennsylvania train that would start him on his journey.

But police reached him before the train pulled in.

Ten minutes later he was locked behind the bars at city jail, awaiting arraignment on a charge of passing a worthless check.

Van Horn is alleged to have written a check for $10 for Carl Snook, N. Main-st. agent, without funds in the bank with which to back up his money order. Snook says the check was intended to cover a $5 bill. The balance, Van Horn wanted in change, he said.

While Van Horn was leaving for his train, Snook did some investigating, filed complaint with police, and saw to it that Van Horn was locked up until his case can be heard.

ELECTION BOARD SUED BY KNIGHT

Demands Witnesses and Challenges at Voting Places.

CINCINNATI. (Associated Press).—Attorney Robert S. Alcorn, on behalf of Congressman Charles I. Knight of Akron, one of the nine candidates for the Republican nomination for governor of Ohio, filed a mandamus suit in the common pleas court here today to compel the Hamilton-co board of elections to issue instructions to the election officers to permit Knight to name a witness and challenger at each precinct on primary election day next Tuesday.

The hearing of the case was set for Saturday morning before Judge Fred L. Hoffman County Prosecutor Louis H. Capella will represent the board of elections.

Alcorn set forth that Knight had applied to the board and had been refused the right to name witnesses and challengers. He said the board replied that there were only two ways provided by law for securing this right. One was thru the Hamilton-co Republican controlling committee and the other by five candidates joining in a request for the right.

Alcorn stated that the local controlling committee has already gone on record publicly as endorsing one of the nine candidates to the exclusion of all others. He contended that each candidate for the nomination for governor had a right thru his own controlling committee to name witnesses and challengers and stated that this view was taken by the Cuyahoga county board of elections.

AWARD CONTRACT SOON FOR UNION-ST TUNNEL

A north and south street which will never be blocked by railroad trains or street cars will be available as soon as the Union-st tunnel is paved, Vaughn Miller, city engineer, said Thursday.

Plans have been practically completed for the paving work and it is expected to award a contract as soon as the legislation can be put thru by the city commission. It will be finished by fall, Miller hopes.

THEFT OF TELEPHONES THOUGHT BOYS' WORK

Radio bugs have begun anew, their drive upon the phone system of the city, it is believed.

Complaints from J. R. Rosen, Erie railroad official, made to police headquarters Thursday, report three telephones stolen from a phone booth in the west end yards within the past three days.

The last theft is said to have occurred Wednesday night.

The belief is expressed that boys who have been experimenting with thefts of telephones are responsible for the material with which to develop their outfit.

FARM BUREAU URGES MEMBERS TO PLACE EXHIBITS AT FAIR

Every possible effort is to be made by the Allen-co Farm Bureau to encourage the participation of the farmers in the fair this fall at the fair grounds.

In other years the farmers have failed to take advantage of the opportunities offered, mainly because of the low premium rates offered. H. J. Ridge, farm agent, believes.

This year the premium list has been increased and a much larger appropriation for prizes has been made. It will pay farmers to make exhibits of farm produce and livestock Ridge believes.

Plans for participation in the fair this fall will be taken up at a meeting of the directors of the farm bureau Saturday afternoon in the farm bureau rooms.

Premium lists showing the complete range of prizes, together with the classes of most interest to young people have been mailed to members of the various clubs for farm boys and girls.

REED LEADS LONG BY BIG MARGIN

The Klan made religion a campaign issue.

In some precincts it was reported the negro registration ran as high as ten Democrats to one Republican. Many negroes switched from their Republican ranks before the primary in order to vote for Walton whom they regard as their champion.

Unless there comes an unprecedented upset in the Democratic side, Walton will meet John C. Fields of Oklahoma City, the Republican gubernatorial nominee, in November.

Miss Alice Robertson, Republican, of Muskogee, Okla., the only woman in congress, seemed sure of renomination in the second district.

MORGAN IN LEAD

TOPEKA, Kansas. (Associated Press).—W. Y. Morgan, Hutchinson, Kan., today led former Governor W. R. Stubbs of Lawrence, for the Republican nomination for governor by about 10,000 votes on the face of unofficial returns approximately 75 per cent complete.

In the race for the Republican nomination for supreme justice Richard J. Hopkins, attorney general, was leading Justice Silas Porter of Kansas City by 765 votes. This race had attracted considerable attention because of Hopkins' rulings in connection with the industrial court.

There were few contests for nomination on the Democratic ticket. Jonathan Davis of Bourbon-co having apparently won the nomination for governor.

WEST VIRGINIA CONTEST

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (United Press).—Senator Howard Sutherland, Republican, today was leading H. C. Ogden in the contest for nomination for United States senator. Ogden has overhauled some of Sutherland's lead.

With the exception of the state's precincts heard from the vote stood Sutherland 47,077; Ogden 42,280; Lilly 18,575.

M. M. Neely, former congressman, added to his lead over Mrs. William May Brown, his only competitor for the Democratic nomination for United States senator. The vote early today stood:

Neely 44,110; Brown 30,068. Bill Blizard and Fred Mooney, United Mine Workers of America officials, apparently had been selected by the Republicans as candidates for the state house of delegates. Returns from Cabin Creek and other coal mining fields totalling a scattering vote in Charleston, showed Mooney third and Blizard fifth in a field of 35 candidates, six to be nominated.

Blizard and Mooney are both under murder indictments in connection with the miners' march on Logan last summer. Blizard was recently acquitted of treason, which charges still stand against Mooney.

TENNESSEE VOTING TODAY

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (Associated Press).—Women voted in Tennessee elections for nominations for U. S. senator and state officers for the first time today. Chief interest centered in the Democratic senatorial and gubernatorial races, with all candidates claiming victory.

Senator Kenneth D. McKellar of Memphis, incumbent, was opposed by Captain Gus T. Fitzhugh, also of Memphis, and Noah W. Cooper, "blue law" advocate. The senatorial campaign had been waged on a labor-non-partisan questionnaire. McKellar, favoring the bonus and said to have the support of organized labor, has been criticized by Fitzhugh while McKellar has charged Fitzhugh's campaign expenditures have been excessive. Cooper declares that he is "running against no one but Satan and Mammon."

The race for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination is a four-cornered affair between former Governor Benton McMillin, Austin Peay, Clairsville, Harvey H. Hannah, of Nashville, and L. E. Gwin, at present a state senator.

Governor Alt A. Taylor, incumbent, is unopposed for the Republican nomination for governor. Republican candidates for the senatorial nomination are former Senator Newell Sanders of Chattanooga, Thomas E. Peck, present commissioner of agriculture, Henry B. Anderson and John W. Farley, the last two of Memphis.

The women's vote is expected to be a big factor in the primary and it is estimated that a total of between 175,000 and 200,000 votes will be cast.

In the congressional races Cordell Hull, chairman of the national Democratic committee who was defeated in the 1920 Republican landslide in Tennessee, is unopposed for nomination in the fourth district.

putes between carriers and employees.

In concluding, the acceptance declared.

"On advice from you of the expressed acceptance of the terms of this agreement by the carriers, we will take the responsibility of directing employees to return to work."

RIOTING RENEWED

CHICAGO. (Associated Press).—There was a full today in peace maneuvers in the railroad strike.

There was no forecast of where the next peace effort would originate.

Strike leaders turned their attention toward Washington where President Harding had a telegram sent by the shopmen last night after their meeting here, accepting his peace proposals upon condition that the union's interpretation of the settlement suggestions be recognized.

Railroad men noted the invitation of the Southern railway to striking shopmen to negotiate for a settlement based on President Harding's plan, but made no comment.

Violence was reported from a number of cities during the night. Carl Spradley was killed during an exchange of shots at Van Buren, Ark., between guards in the Missouri Pacific shops and men said to be strikers.

At Jackson, Mich., several police officers and striking shopmen were slightly injured when more than a thousand strike sympathizers, including many women and children, attacked non-union workers.

Eighty strike sympathizers attacked more than sixty workers on the Chicago Great Western at Des Moines, Iowa.

EMPLOYEE SLAIN

CHICAGO. (Associated Press).—Robert Johnson, 42, an employee of the Illinois Central shops at Burnside, was beaten to death this morning by four unidentified men, the police reported. The assailants escaped. Witnesses told police that the four men accosted Johnson, asked him not to go to work and then attacked him.

U. S. STRIKE PLANS

WASHINGTON. (Associated Press).—Further plans of the government in connection with the railroad strike were still unrevealed today, although administration officials were understood to be still expediting the possibilities of a settlement on the basis of the assurance conveyed by the railway executives that they would consider favorably any fair proposal which preserved the seniority rights of shopmen who had continued at work during the strike.

President Harding had received for study today the reply drafted by the union leaders at Chicago to his proposal for a settlement upon which comment was withheld. Some cabinet members intimated today that the government's course would be largely determined by a test during the next few days of the claims of railroad management as to their ability to maintain transportation.

Emphasis, however, still was laid on the close hearing of the rail strike situation on the problem of coal supply as the government's chief concern in the rail dispute. Officials were known to be giving particular attention to effort to better transportation capacity on the coal carrying roads for the district south of the Ohio river which service the larger non-union fields, with evidence that unless this was accomplished soon some degree of government control might result to meet the situation.

THREE ARE SHOT IN BUFFALO RIOT

Striking Street Car Workers and Police Clash.

BUFFALO, N. Y. (Associated Press).—The International Railway Company today appeared in the supreme court demanding that Mayor Frank A. Schwab enforce the law which prohibits the operation of jitneys without permission from the public service commission.

Mayor replying contended that the emergency which justified him in granting permits to the jitneys still exists.

The legal battle followed a night of the worst rioting that has thus far marked the strike.

John Chroskine, 40, a striking conductor, was fatally killed when a policeman fired three shots from a riot gun after a crowd had attacked a car. The same volley wounded Casimer Kisewski and Harold Lang Kisewski, a laborer, was shot just under the heart and may die. Lang, a striking switch tender, was slightly injured. The policeman fired after the crowd had broken in the windows of the front vestibule and after a bottle of acid had been thrown on the motorman.

Mayor Schwab is expected to announce later a new plan for the ending of the strike by means of an arbitration commission.

CASE CONTINUED

Trial of Anthony Keller, 340 S. Main-st., who is held at police headquarters on a charge of possessing illicit liquor, will be continued before Judge Motter in criminal court, later, the judge announced Thursday. Lack of evidence on both sides of the case prohibited a completion of the case Thursday.

MEMENTOES OF FIRST ALLEN-CO MAN KILLED IN WAR OF REBELLION

A scarf worn by Marc Armstrong, the first Lima soldier to be killed in the civil war, has been presented to the Allen-co Historical society by Mrs. Roger Cole, granddaughter of the famous warrior.

Accompanying the memento which has just been received by Mrs. James Pillars, curator of the society is a photo showing Armstrong's body lying in state here after being sent from the southern battlefields.

The scarf is of dark red silk and was worn by Armstrong when he received his fatal wound, according to the donor. Mrs. Pillars stated the additions are among the most prized in the rapidly increasing collection of curios of the society in Memorial Hall.

The local post of the G. A. R. was named after Armstrong, whose name occupies an important niche in many memories of Allen-co and its people.

Some classes of consumers in their territories with a list of those who should receive priorities. Detailed instructions drawn up place final responsibility for all coal shipped to the state on the governor's committee, which also assumes in each case entire responsibility for distribution and prevention of profiteering.

In the establishment of district committees of government representatives and operators, special provision is made with a view to establishing a regular movement of coal to the Great Lakes section. Control of fuel distribution to the railroads will gradually be assumed by a special committee here of representatives from the different railway groups.

PEACE MEET PLANNED

PHILADELPHIA. (United Press).—Peace negotiations which may send anthracite miners back to work within a fortnight, will be opened between hard coal operators and mine district presidents about next Wednesday, John L. Lewis, international president United Mine Workers, announced today.

At the same time S. D. Warriner, spokesman for anthracite owners declared operators are ready to agree on a "reasonable wage basis," and that he believed success would result from the proposed meeting.

The conference between union presidents and anthracite mine owners will follow Monday's meeting at Cleveland if such is effected.

Lewis said anthracite members of the international policy committee would leave the Monday conference as soon as their presence was necessary at the new parley proposed by him today.

Warriner urged immediate negotiation, but the miners' chief insisted the negotiations concerning the central competitive field came first.

REFUSE TO MEET

COLUMBUS. (Associated Press).—The Southern Ohio Coal Exchange will not be represented at the conference of operators and executives of the United Mine Workers in Cleveland Monday, when an effort will be made to eliminate the coal strike, according to an announcement by W. D. McKinney, secretary of the exchange who said members took informal action against acceptance of President Lewis' invitation yesterday.

In notifying Mr. Lewis that the organization would not be represented the stand of the exchange that they do not believe in interstate action to negotiate a wage scale was reiterated. Willingness of the organization to meet with miners of the Southern Ohio district for the purpose of drawing a new wage scale was expressed by Mr. McKinney in his letter to Mr. Lewis.

President Lee Hall of the Ohio miners announced today that he will present the request of Governor Davis that two mines, one in eastern and the other in southern Ohio be permitted to operate to supply coal for state institutions to the executive board of the Ohio miners' organization for final decision at a conference at Cleveland Sunday. He also said that international officers would be asked to pass on the governor's request.

Extensive plans have been laid by Lima and Piqua Elks to celebrate "Tom Pearson Day" at the Elks home Thursday night.

Following the regular lodge meeting the Lima Elks and their guests will adjourn to the banquet hall where an extensive program will be given following a dinner.

COAL SITUATION STILL CHAOTIC

Breckenridge to Confer With State Fuel Head Friday.

Lima's fuel situation is still in a chaotic condition, H. L. Breckenridge, chairman of the chamber of commerce fuel committee, said Thursday.

A conference will be held with George Poor, state fuel administrator, in Columbus Friday. Absence of Poor from Columbus made it impossible for the meeting to be held sooner, Breckenridge said.

At this conference it is hoped to discover just how the fuel situation stands at the present time and what hopes Lima may have to obtain the coal necessary for the operation of industries in this city.

No policy has been made public by the state administrator and until such is done there will be little or no chance for Lima to decide where things stand, Breckenridge says.

Coal prices continue high to coal dealers in the city and little fuel is available even at the advanced prices. Domestic consumers have been unable to obtain anthracite coal, it is said.

Breckenridge will leave Lima about 4 p. m. Thursday and the conference with Poor will be held Friday morning, he said.

POWER COMPANY PLACES ORDER

Equipment Purchased in Anticipation of Franchise.

Extensive purchases of electrical equipment and other property intended for installation in Lima and for use here has been made by the Ohio Power Co. It was learned from authoritative sources Thursday.

These purchases have been made by the company, even though they have not been able to meet the terms laid down by the city as regards power rates the meeting of which will be necessary before a franchise is given, it was said.

Members of the city commission are of the opinion that rates proposed for both domestic users and the lighting of the city streets are much too high, when compared with similar rates elsewhere.

At all conferences with the Ohio Power Co. it has been stated they have made their best offer and that it is up to the city to accept or reject the franchise and that they are willing to either come into the city or stay out.

It is believed that should the city commission refuse to give the company the rates they desire and the franchise is refused, the Ohio Power Co. will lose considerable in property and material they have purchased for use here.

HARLEY ARNOLD, LIMA MAN, STABBED AT DELPHOS

WOMEN EXAMINE QUESTIONNAIRES

List Open at Library Saturday; Candidate Quiz.

Stand taken by political candidates who aspire to nomination in the primary Tuesday, on legislative issues, may be ascertained by all women voters of the city Saturday at the public library.

Mrs. F. M. Bell, chairman of the League of Women Voters, stated Thursday all questionnaires filled out by the candidates, in addition to other data, will be at their disposal. Members of the league will be at the library during library hours, to answer all questions, she said.

More information on candidates was received Wednesday night at a meeting of the league in the common pleas court room of the courthouse. One hundred persons, candidates and citizens, were present.

E. A. Harvey, Ada, republican candidate for Lieutenant Governor of Ohio, enlightened the gathering on several matters and E. F. Ferguson, Van Wert, candidate for state senator, was in command out of town candidates to speak.

Local candidates present were: John L. Cable, republican candidate for Representative from this district; Judge Phil M. Crow, Democratic aspirant for judge of the court of appeals and E. G. Dempster, republican candidate for court of appeals.

It was impossible for J. H. Goeke, Democratic candidate for congressman, to be present, but he sent his questionnaire and a letter, which was read before the assembly.

Claron L. Sbate, Scott, Ohio's blind senator, was here Wednesday, but could not attend the meeting, owing to an engagement in Van Wert. He wrote his views on the minimum wage question, which Mrs. Bell read. Letters from Judge C. S. Fonger of Celina, Republican, and William J. Schwan, also a Democratic candidate for the court of appeals, were read.

GASOLINE PROBE PLAN REVEALED

McNary Tells of Wide Range in Price Investigation.

WASHINGTON. (United Press). — The sweeping scope of the gasoline price investigation by the special senate committee was revealed today by Senator McNary, Oregon, selecting chairman, as he announced hearings would be started Monday.

Six phases of the present situation, in which the country as a record-breaking reserve of gasoline, with sky-high prices, will be investigated.

According to McNary, these are: 1—Whether there exists unfair competition or monopoly in the industry.

2—Whether the fluctuations in exports and imports have had a material effect on domestic prices.

3—Whether increased transportation costs, including installation of new pipe lines, have caused the recent "sky rocketing."

4—The present supply of gasoline and crude oil and the daily production of gasoline.

5—The present rate of consumption which producers claim has increased enormously during the past few weeks.

6—Whether the shortage of coal due to the nation-wide mine tie up has been creating new demands for fuel oil had any effect in the price boosting.

The first witness to be called before the committee will be R. L. Welch, secretary of the Petroleum Institute of American Petroleum.

Should congress determine to legislate into existence a federal commission to regulate that industry, the committee may recommend that it also be given power to control oil supplies.

CITIZENS AT VARIANCE ON TYPE OF MATERIAL FOR HAZEL-AY PAVING

Paving of Hazel-ay between McAdams and Baxter-sts is again attracting the attention of city officials.

Many citizens along the street have notified the city manager they do not want asphalt for the street, but are willing to have it paved with brick and want it done immediately.

When Manager C. A. Bingham and Engineer Vaughn Miller decided to pave the street with brick, certain property owners said the wish of the majority was to have it paved with asphalt. An injunction was threatened unless asphalt was used.

After investigation it was decided to relet the contract later in the month and pave the street with asphalt. Immediately, other property owners notified the commissioners that they desired brick and wanted the work started immediately.

A petition will be presented to the city commission Monday night requesting that brick paving be started at once. Bingham has been told. Not only will a majority of the property owners sign the petition, but many will attend the meeting, they told Bingham.

RESERVE BOARD MAY BE APPOINTED TOMORROW

Prevented Entirely

If your skin is so tender that you expect sunburn, rub it well with Vicks before exposure.

After sunburn, apply Vicks gently—do not rub in. It soothes the tortured skin and often prevents blistering.

For any outdoor vacation, Vicks is "standard equipment." It eases attacks of hay fever, asthma, catarrh and summer colds.

It's fine, too, for sore muscles, tired feet, poison oak, or ivy, and for bites and stings.

EMPLOYING EXPERTS

DURING the last two administrations under the old form of government Lima was overrun by experts. Hundreds and thousands of dollars were spent for supposedly expert advice and work, much of the money being a total waste.

When the new form of government with its efficiency was inaugurated, taxpayers hoped for an end to the employment of outside aid every time some odd job was to be done. The old inclination is cropping out, however, the latest proposal being for the hiring of an expert to assemble certain records. This project brought a dissenting vote in the city commission, one member announcing himself strenuously opposed to spending money where not absolutely necessary.

Records in city hall probably are in a dilapidated condition. The old building is a ramshackle affair at the best and it is generally known that records have been poorly kept. But the city's finances are as badly dilapidated as the records and building. The city is in a sad way financially and cannot well stand for frills at this time.

Even tho the records need assembling, and it is not to be doubted that they do, it would appear that no great loss would be incurred by including them temporarily in the long list of other things that must suffer a make-shift fate until money is available. Commissioner Earl Rohn had good reason to vote against paying an expert for doing the work at this time.

WASTE IN COAL

COAL is the most inefficient of the great industries. Seasonal buying—not enough miners part of the time, too many miners the rest of the time.

Twice as many mines as are needed, with a 4000-years' supply under-ground and easily available, yet shortage follows shortage. Profits rarely are normal, either a feast or a famine. Out of each 2000 pounds of coal mined, only 76 pounds are actually converted into heat energy, the rest is waste.

The oil industry was much the same way until John D. came along. Coal also needs an organizing genius. He will come.

CHANGING STYLES

THE short skirt apparently is doomed. Long skirts sweep the eastern cities—also the filthy sidewalks.

Women, in the change of styles, should keep the sidewalk angle in mind. A skirt that drags on the ground collects and carries a thousand times more germs than all flies and mosquitoes combined.

Women know this, yet long trains probably are scheduled for a few years hence. The short skirt was an extreme style, and the pendulum will swing to the other extreme.

FAME YOU DESERVE

THE world knows nothing about its greatest men. Our greatest are not stars who live by exhibition of themselves and abilities, but quiet people who think and work in modest seclusion.

Walkley, brilliant dramatic critic of the London Times, makes this observation.

History will remember the "great" men who plunged the world into the World War. History will paint in bright colors the men who carried on the work of destruction for more than four years.

But history will be strangely silent about a greater than these—the plodders who now are patiently repairing the damages, toiling to rebuild a civilization burned out to its very skeleton.

The men who really are repairing the war's damages are not the Prominent Gentlemen who get their names in the newspaper headlines. The real builders are the farmers toiling to restore food supply to normal, the mechanics furnishing the materials to replace what was destroyed, and the unadvertised millions contributing their daily mites to the war debt.

A PECULIAR thing, is fame. And always it is unfair, the lucky individual getting more than he deserves.

Watt is famous for inventing the steam engine. Yet his discovery of the principle would have been worthless if it had not been for the unknown thousands who patiently had worked out mechanical movements and methods of converting iron ore into steel. All Watt did was gather up these loose ends, put them together, add a new idea and march into history with credit for the whole thing.

All famous men "borrow" nine-tenths of their invention, skill or art.

MEN work with many things, from farm soil to metals and chemical magic. In proper combinations, these bring fame.

But the greatest material man works with is man himself—his character. And the greatest men are the ones who emerge with the greatest character.

Character, by its example and contagion, is the only thing a man can build with permanence. It outlasts the Pyramids.

And you, as you look back over your life, probably will agree that the greatest person you ever met was some individual who never rose above obscurity.

Fame is futile. Crave it not. What counts most is personal satisfaction with what we have made of ourselves and our life's work. We leave this world as we enter it—alone—and in the last analysis each man is his own best judge.

HEALTH TALKS

Common Sense Ways to Keep Well

DUST AND COUGHS

Any occupation in which considerable dust is loosed to float around in the air is dangerous, and one in which the workers are apt to have a steady dry cough.

For instance, steel grinding is dangerous, in inverse proportion to the size of the objects ground. In grinding or filing large objects, the dust can be wet before it gets the opportunity to float in the air. Small objects, however, such as needles and other fine implements, must be ground dry, and the grinder must watch his work closely. Consequently, he must continually be inhaling fine particles of steel thrown off in the process.

At first the man thinks he has "catarrh"—whatever he considers that is. There develops a slight dry cough, and later on expectoration. Finally a condition of hardening of the lungs occurs, and this often terminates fatally. The risk may be diminished by the use of respirators and by employment of an air blast to carry the dust away.

In making show cards, Christmas cards and the like, the bronze powder adheres to the worker's skin, causing irritation, and is inhaled, causing chronic irritation of the upper air passages.

Glass grinding likewise endangers health, not only from the dust inhaled, but from lead poisoning from the putty powder.

Stone cutters have their own peculiar asthma.

Mica dust is very irritating, and opens the way for infection with tuberculosis.

"Freezing" in the wall paper industry subjects workmen to this danger. Another practice in the wall paper industry is applying a finely powdered lamb's wool preparation on pads by hand. This dust is a frequent predisposing cause of tuberculosis.

Cotton dust is very irritant to the upper air passages, and most cotton mill and knitting mill hands are forever "taking cold" or having "catarrh" or coughing. Flax dust is even worse.

Many other dusty occupations subject the workers to disease of the air passages. The dust from feathers, fur, tobacco, brushes (brush making), broom making, hair born and bone is dangerous.

"I KNEW HIM WHEN—"

"I knew him when he was only this, I knew him when he was only that."

You've heard the gossips snarl and hiss

And learned their stories directed at

The man who struggled to wealth or fame

And wins the praise of his fellow men.

There's always a bunch that greets his name

With raucous laughter—"We knew him, when—"

They "knew him, when—" and they think it smart

To tell of his early days, and touch

On the humble way that he got his start

(They didn't help him, of course—not much!)

And they seem to think that they minimize

His honest worth when they turn again

And point the distance he had to rise

By loudly cackling, "I knew him, when—"

"I knew him, when—" it's the Fallure's sneer

At the man who won, it's the phrase that shows

How one with a vision true and clear

Labored and struggled and fought—and rose,

While the little men in their littleness

Fattered and doubted and feared, and then,

Seeking vainly to join success, Mutter and sputter, "We knew him, when—"

A Page from the Diary of An Antiquated Reporter: Up and to my mandolin, the while George pulled of these radishes from mother earth. And so, out and met with Tim Murphy, the professor of French, newly come from St. Ritas, after a week therein. Down the thoroughfare, passing and bowing to Judge Miner Abner, maker of more wills than the rest of the baristry.

ABE MARTIN

Hain't it wonderful how th' average family all gets together again before breakfast—or nearly all—son kin never repays his mother, but she never seems to hold it against him.

And A. M. Rodgers, the eminent attache of the court of Junist Becker. Who loves to advocate with 52 in the jury. N. P. Hall, the good farm purveyor; and Dr. Noble, of St. Mayday. Seemingly a day of super folk abroad in the land.

All the morning avoiding of the poste, the Solar foghorn reminding me well the time of month. Chatted with D. J. Cable, who wants to be chief motorman on a rejuvenated street car trol system. Here's hopin' General Byng gives him the job. In the papers my old college chum Edwin Blank, member of the court of chambers, excellent farmer and journeyman carpenter. Saying as how the constitution doesn't permit the C. M. to hold his job; while the Kommush saying as how the Kommush does. Constitutions have become mere scraps of paper, methinks.

Telegram from the Prairie Oil & Pipe lopping off 25c the bl. from crude, which, translated into the chute that leads from the filling station to your gas wagon. Means 1c a gal. less for motor fuel. Sooner or later, probably later. In due process of time.

So, home to lunch on a mixed meat eggs omelette, and American beans a la creme. A lemon pie for the sweet. My mind now pretty well in quiet, and my body in good disposition. Since ceasing to fool myself on this misnamed near-beer. Nowaday, partaking of naught, but Kommink XXX, bovine flow.

Scandal in the clinic, which has not focused as yet. All the talk about the brave doctor. Who for the nonce, says neither he will or won't. All the afternoon at my tasks, whence came many walking delegates who distrust the poste. Out, and spoke in fine friendliness to Dr. J. E. Evans, the eminent molar surgeon, and D. W. Bailey, the Rockefeller engineer. Chatted a bit with Frank Maure, super banker, agent the building of the Steiner block. And he, ever foresighted, spoke of its making Lizzy street an assured annex to the new retail district. Get this, M'seur Kettler?

In the late afternoon, strolled to the East Side, a noble residence section. Saw the kiddies, playing in the park. And looked over Dale Cleomean's hobby to newly come now, the great Allen-co fan. On the way in, met but he didn't see me. Heiman E. Myers, the accountant. Who tells you where you are and where you hunt. At the first of the month. He waving his arms as the anxious to bowl again. Judge Ben S. Motter, the brave police court referee; and Glenn I. Wallace, rushing home to get into his garden. He uses a hoe more dexterously than any banker swings a mdivion.

Dined well on dainty lamb chops, with potatoes off the grill; a mushy tomato salad, and roasting ears that tested your molars. There's General George A. Hall, of Bellefontaine-av way. The only man who ever outwaved George M. Cohan with the American flag. In the evening, strolling in the moonshine up past St. Rose, and under the cross, meditated long on the evils of my way. And so, to bed.

"SHADY BUSINESS" BECLOUDS LIFE

Important Rules in Trade Conduct Given by Expert

WORKERS GREATEST ASSET

Employers Put Thru Examination—Patience is Urged.

(BY E. C. FORBES)

NEW YORK.—(Special)—Don't most of us try to avoid long-winded talkers and long-winded writers? I try in these articles to keep out of the second class. I have just written a book which contains probably the largest number of "chapters" ever compressed into 160 pages. Its title will explain: "Fables, Epigrams, a Thousand Thoughts On Life and Business."

Selections from these 1,000 paragraphs will probably be more interesting than anything I could write today.

Make good or make room.

A shady business never yields a sunny life.

It's better to be in love with your work than in love with yourself.

If you play the game straight, business becomes as inspiring as sport. Be a sportsman.

Don't talk about your abilities. Demonstrate them.

A business, like an automobile, as to be driven in order to get results.

Keep your eye on the clock—in the morning.

Don't forget until too late that the business of life is not business, at living.

If you're ashamed of your position, you should be ashamed of yourself.

It is more worth while to take aim to be successful than to take aim to be over you. Neither aim nor grow.

Every dollar you save is a plank laid toward individuals—and national prosperity.

Your greatest business asset is the people who do your business, your workers.

Don't be impatient. The biggest obstacle in America are nearly all held by men over 45, most of them over 50.

Most of us employers, as well as employees are put thru an examination occasionally, and not all of us pass.

A snowflake is a little thing, but enough of them can cause untold catastrophe. Bad habits are like that.

Three important C's: Common sense, Cooperation, Courtesy.

Your income depends on your output, be you sweating garment maker or collar and cuff executive.

The grouch throws sand into the machinery.

Above all, don't drift purposelessly, idly, disinterestedly. Do: Strive; wait; serve.

Spend less time in talking about what you have done and more in planning wise things to do.

That business which does not serve a useful purpose dooms those involved in it.

He is rich, he is a king, he is a gladiator who has mastered self-control.

They talk about this money being better than that money. The best money of all is the money you earn or yourself honestly and honorably.

There's something you can achieve without effort: Failure. Nothing else.

You may mold your business, yes; but how you mold your business molds you.

The capital you must depend upon most is this capital: I.

JUPITER PLUVIUS IN NEW THREAT

Jupiter Pluvius was unable to squeeze out more than a few drops of rain as the net result of a forecast of showers so confidently presented by the weather forecaster.

However, the intentions of the weatherman were good and the efforts of Jupiter Pluvius were honest, but results were mighty poor. In the face of expectation and keen anticipation.

Partly cloudy tonight and Friday, with moderate temperature, is the immediate forecast. This would indicate further prospect of moisture and the tendencies are in that direction, with lowering clouds and other ample signs.

Ted doesn't care what comes during the heated term, so long as ice cream continues a commodity of an available character.

EXPERTS TESTIFY IN DELPHOS PAVING CASE

Engineering experts placed on the stand by the city of Delphos Thursday in the injunction hearing sought by John Mueller a citizen, who seeks to tie up paving of three streets, stated that in their opinion wood block paving will withstand traffic conditions.

Witnesses for the plaintiff completed their testimony Wednesday. Among those called were many citizens of Delphos, including city officials.

Counsel for Mueller sought to show that wood block is not a proper pavement and that brick should have been chosen.

McHugh & Cole were low bidders on brick. J. K. Williams, Delphos city executive, while on the stand stated his reasons for not awarding the contract to that firm.

Vaughn Miller, B. F. Darlin and Claude Zartman testified Wednesday regarding the worth of wood block paving.

FORMER MAYOR SPEAKER AT U. B. CHURCH HOMECOMING

Ex-Mayor F. A. Burkhardt of Lima will be the speaker Sunday at a homecoming program to be given by the Angeline U. B. church, two and a half miles southwest of Harrod. Burkhardt will address the gathering on the afternoon program.

Morning services will be held in the church. Rev. L. M. Copeland of Springfield will deliver a sermon at 10:30.

A basket dinner will be served in the grove nearby the church from noon until 2 p. m.

Other Lima persons who will be featured on the program are Dale Marshall, tenor, and Doris Louise Yazel, reader. The church orchestra will furnish instrumental selections.

The committee has invited everybody to attend the homecoming.

YOUNG QUILTS AS SCHOOL COACH

Resignation of South High Athletic Head Surprise.

Unexpected resignation of Ward Young as athletic coach at South High school has led to a decision by school authorities here that as much attention will be paid mass athletics in the future as development of winning "varsity" teams.

Young wired his resignation from Los Angeles, Cal., where he went soon after the close of the last school term, to enter into business. It came as a complete surprise to the board of education.

Three men are being considered for the post. Superintendent J. E. Collins said. The man who has had the best collegiate experience and is qualified in every way to promote the two main scholastic sports here will get the job, he said.

To carry out the idea of giving all pupils advantage of coaching it is proposed to engage assistants at both the High schools, but no persons other than faculty members will be considered, it was stated.

Coming to the necessity of them keeping in close touch with scholastic activities, educational as well as athletic.

Increased attendance at the meetings there has completely outstripped seating facilities, the adjutant said.

200 GREEK GIRLS ARRIVE TO CLAIM U. S. HUSBANDS

NEW YORK.—Greek maidens—nearly 200 of them—bearing gifts, and dressed in the gaudy "Sunday best" of the Athenian sister of the flapper, "picture brides" whose wooing had all been done by mail, have arrived. They had the first glimpses of the men they are to marry as the crowd of eager bridegrooms circled the ship in motor boats. Few of the brides know George from Maine. Many of the "picture brides" brought gifts for their unseen matrimonial partners. One brought a saddle for a husband who chances to be a Kansas farmer. Unfortunately he will not require it in his jaunts, as he rides in an automobile.

No difficulty is expected in permitting the entrance of the members of the Hymeneal Argosy, as quotas from Greece allowed by the immigration restriction act are as yet unfilled.

INSURANCE POLICIES ON CITY PROPERTY SOON READY

Insurance companies which will assist in the underwriting city buildings and property have been notified to present their policies at the earliest possible moment, Harry N. Osgood said Wednesday.

Complete satisfaction regarding the apportionment of the insurance has been expressed by the companies and as soon as the policies are written and presented to the city, they will be accepted and paid for.

As the expenditure is more than $500, it will be necessary to obtain official ratification by the city commission before the bill can be paid. Osgood hopes all policies and the bills for the premiums will be ready by the meeting of the commission Monday night.

ARREST ESCAPED

Day's Campaigners Miss Trip to Police Headquarters.

Sailing into Lima early Thursday morning, scattering literature and broadcast for the purpose of enhancing the chances of Senator Arthur H. Day, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, twelve of his workers narrowly escaped a trip to police headquarters.

A detachment of the "Political Caravan" started to supply Lima with bundles of handbills in a promiscuous manner. The workers here were led by Sam Scott, Cleveland, and V. A. Marco, Akron. A policeman, seeing the fluttering bills, stopped the autoists but did not make arrests when they promised to get the necessary permit from City Hall.

Upon receiving assurances that handbills would not be scattered on the streets and become an eyesore, Harry N. Osgood, city clerk, issued the license to the campaigners, but the permit was later withdrawn.

GOLF, BRIDGE DIVERSIONS AT COUNTRY CLUB

HOUSEHOLD TABLES
No small accessory adds more to comfort than a small end-table that may be drawn up conveniently to the davenport or wherever it is needed. Needs of tables are most decorative and very useful where space is limited.

PARIS HATS
Paris is sending over some very smart hats lined under the brim with figured crepe and with scarfs wound about the crown reaching below the shoulder.

PAJAMAS
Most attractive pajamas are made of crepe satin, with several rows of tucks at the bottom of the coat and trousers, under which is a row of heavily padded roses of the satin. The neck is cut with a deep "V."

GINGHAM
The gingham bathing suit and the gingham pattern in the old plaid and check patterns we know so well are seen in all the shop windows. Gingham hats, too, are very smart and gingham patterns are being used in silks.

HIGHER HEELS
Shoe manufacturers say heels will be higher this winter. Color combinations in shoes continue to be popular.

When excusing oneself from a dancing partner, merely turn to him and say, "Pardon me, please," or a similar expression. A year or a few months more or less, is the usual period of an engagement.
(6) Do not force yourself upon a man who means nothing to you. He may have enjoyed your company while he was with you, but it is his affair if he does not care to further the acquaintance. I would not cheapen myself by calling him, if there is any telephoning to be done, let the gentleman do it.

Will you please answer a few questions? (1) When a girl is with a young man at a dance, and another boy asks her for a dance, how should she excuse herself to the boy who is with? (2) Do you think it is nice for a girl to smoke?
(3) When introducing a sister or a brother to your boy friends, what is the proper manner of introduction?
(4) I am going to buy a dress but cannot decide what kind of material to get. Please advise me.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart:
I AM writing to you for some advice. I have been going with a young man eight years older than myself. He is a very nice young man, only he objects to taking me places, and I cannot imagine why. I am just as good looking and have just as nice clothes as any one else.

(2) My father objects to him staying later than 10:30. Is this too late?
(3) What does a man mean when he asks you to keep steady company with him, and not go with anyone else?
(4) I love him more every time I see him, but I have a feeling that he is not true to me. What can I do to overcome this feeling?
(5) How can a man court a girl before they marry?
(6) Some time ago I met a man whom I admire very much. When he left he did not ask me for another date. Is it all right for me to call him up? Do you believe he will ever call me? What can I do?

HELEN
If the young man expects to win your regard and affection, he should arrange to accompany you to a theatre or a dance, occasionally. Tell him that you enjoy going places with him, and would appreciate being taken about now and then.

You do not state your age, but I do not think 10:30 is too late for the young man to remain.
(3) Usually when a young man requests a girl to keep steady company with him, his intentions are serious, altho such friendships are not always as serious as they may appear.

(4) If your love isn't founded on perfect trust in the young man, it must not be very strong, and if you have no positive proof of his unfaithfulness, forget about it entirely.
(5) Long engagements are of no special benefit, and depend entirely upon circumstances. A year or a few months more or less, is the usual period of an engagement.

(6) Do not force yourself upon a man who means nothing to you. He may have enjoyed your company while he was with you, but it is his affair if he does not care to further the acquaintance. I would not cheapen myself by calling him, if there is any telephoning to be done, let the gentleman do it.

"MYSTERY" SURROUNDS MELON DISAPPEARANCE
Bill Houtz, premier traffic officer, planned a celebration Wednesday. He bought a watermelon early in the morning and parked it at headquarters until he was off duty.

But someone at headquarters took exception to alleged liberties being taken by the traffic cop. When Houtz returned for his melon, it was gone.

Investigation revealed the fact that a large quantity of rind is waiting in the refuse can back of headquarters.

Certain brother officers of Houtz are complaining of pains common to youngsters who have eaten green apples.

Responsibility for the disappearance of the melon cannot be fixed.

$500 DAMAGES SOUGHT IN SALE OF AUTOMOBILE

Damages amounting to $500 are asked in a suit instituted in common pleas court Thursday by Blanche and C. C. Mason against H. L. Sherrick, manager of the Lima Lexington Co.

Plaintiffs recite in their petition that they purchased a car of the defendant for $175. The machine was represented to be in good shape, the petition says. Plaintiffs charge that the car was not in the condition represented and that it had no engine number. A bill of sale could not be given for this reason.

Considerable annoyance and trouble has been experienced by the plaintiffs on this account, they say, and they are demanding $500 compensation.

CONGRESSMAN MAY BE NOMINATED TO SUCCEED SELF THO HE IS DEAD

NASHVILLE, Tenn.—L. P. Faggett, representative in congress from the seventh Tennessee district may have the unique honor of being nominated to succeed himself in a Democratic primary the day following his death.

Friends of Faggett held conferences through his district yesterday and decided to fight for his nomination with the same zeal as if he were alive. As a result reports today are to the effect that he is polling a large vote.

The reasons for re-nominating the dead congressman are said to be political circles to be three-fold: A desire to honor a man who has held public office for nearly a quarter of a century; opposition to his only opponent, W. C. Salmon, and to carry out a combination involving other races in today's primary.

Lions in Africa Flee at Blast Of Horn.

OXEN RESCUED BY AUTOIST

Shriek Rising Above Battle's Clamor Frightens Beasts.

NAIROBI, KENYA COLONY, EAST AFRICA.—(Associated Press)—The toot of a single motor horn has been found sufficient, in Africa, to quiet stampeded oxen and cause a trio of fish-hunting lions to slink away into the bushes.

Two native drivers were recently conducting a wagon drawn by 16 oxen to the railroad camp, in the wilds near Nakuru, the site of the new Uasin Gishu railroad, when the spans were attacked by three lions. The drivers fled to nearby trees. The oxen became panic-stricken and dashed down the rough road, dragging along the body of one ox, killed by the lions, with the swaying wagon behind them. The lions followed their prey.

This was the mad procession that greeted a lone motorist at a curve of the road. He had no rifle, and it was almost an unconscious movement that took his hand to the horn.

button. At the first sound the lions seemed non-plussed. The motorist then blew loud and long, as the unsteady and sustained shriek rose above the clamor of the frightened animals, the lions slunk away among the rocks, headed for the shelter of the bush, and the oxen swung clear of the dust-coated automobile and came to a stop at the side of the road.

PLAN EARLY VOTE RESULT COUNT

Secretary of State Issues Orders To County Boards.

J. B. Madigan, chief deputy of the board of deputy state supervisors of elections for Allen-co., anticipated Secretary of State Smith, in arranging to have the headquarters of the board of elections remain open Tuesday night until all voting precincts have been heard from.

Madigan made this sort of arrangement weeks ago and judges of election have been given instructions accordingly. The election board head is determined that Allen-co. shall be among the foremost in getting returns of the primary as early as possible.

Precinct and county election boards were ordered Thursday by Secretary of State Smith to remain open Tuesday night and stay on the job until every vote in every race is counted at the primary election.

Secretary of State Smith issued the instructions as chief election officer of the state and indicated that any election boards not complying may be removed.

Word reached the secretary of state's office that several county election boards were planning not to count votes on election night. These boards were given special instructions to remain on the job until the total vote is counted.

The secretary of state's office will remain open all night on primary to receive the vote from the county election boards, who have been instructed to make an immediate report.

Reader Takes Newer Form of Iron—Feels Years Younger

"Six weeks ago I saw a special offer in the paper telling how thousands of people grow old in looks before they are really old in years, because, as examinations by physicians have shown, an enormous number of people do not have enough iron in their blood. I have been taking Nuxated Iron for two weeks, the results are simply astounding. The roses have come back in my lips and cheeks, and I can conscientiously say that I feel ten years younger."

The above is a typical hypothetical case showing the results that have been achieved by a great many people since we started this "satisfaction or money back" offer of Nuxated Iron. We will make you the same guarantee. If, after taking the two weeks' treatment of Nuxated Iron, you do not feel and look years younger, we will promptly refund your money.

J. HENRY GOEKE FOR CONGRESS

Dan H. Kirwan, Chairman of Goetze For Congress Committee, Strongly

ADVOCATES NOMINATION

On Ground That Experience in Public Affairs Should Be Controlling Factor at Congressional Primary

Chairman Dan H. Kirwan's Statement.

There never has been a time in the history of this country when the popular demand for experience in the administration of public affairs was as great as it is now. The people want real service and they know they can only expect it from men who can render such service as a result of experience that equips them for the duties that confront men in public office.

The most efficient training for public life is no more based upon mere ambition than is the equipment for any profession or business. The simple desire to become a professional or a business man does not make one. The ability to discharge the duties of a profession or handle business matters comes only from actual training, and individuals rarely entrust important matters to men who have not qualified in the particular lines they represent.

Just as definitely as there is a demand for expert knowledge in private affairs so is there need and demand for the selection of trained men for public office, particularly at a time when the affairs of the nation are as greatly disturbed as they are today.

The most efficient members of Congress, and those most valuable to the nation and to their constituents, are the ones who have served long enough to learn how to render effective service.

It was with the idea of securing for the Fourth Ohio Congressional District the character of representation that its immense agricultural, business and manufacturing interests justified, that J. Henry Goetze was induced to become a candidate for the Democratic nomination.

Prior to 1915, he served four years in Congress, met the requirements of exacting public service and rose to the conspicuous place that his rural ability and aptitude for public affairs fitted him for. In matters of important legislation Mr. Goetze took the deep interest that attaches to the responsibility a man of his qualifications feels, and no other Ohio district was more efficiently represented than was the Fourth during the incumbency of Mr. Goetze; neither did any Ohio Congressman reach a higher place in the estimation of his colleagues. His ability was recognized by his assignment to important committees and conferences and some of the outstanding legislation in that time was worked out with his advice and counsel. In Congress he always supported legislation beneficial to those who toil and labor. He never forgot that he represented a great agricultural district and actively championed the farmers' cause. Business and professional men trusted to his fair-mindedness on all public questions. His friendly attitude toward the soldiers, their widows and orphans is evidenced by his speeches in their behalf on the floor of the House.

J. HENRY GOEZE

We are therefore confident that Mr. Goetze's candidacy appeals to all women and men in the Democratic party who want to redeem the district and send a member to Congress who can, as a result of past congressional experience and the prestige that is associated with a fine record, immediately apply himself to the consideration of constructive legislation that the present disordered state of the nation demands. The Republican Congress by the admission of its own leaders has broken down and it behooves the Democratic party of the Fourth District to nominate a candidate who will attract support because of tried and recognized ability as a public man.

It is not said in disparagement of any other candidates that the keenest interest in Mr. Goetze's candidacy over the district is based upon the general knowledge of his fine legislative and business record, and that there has been a ready response to the appeals for support for him because of the high standard he has maintained up to the most arduous measures in a group of very representative candidates.

In this appeal for the nomination of Mr. Goetze, we are urged not only by his highly creditable public record, but by his professional and business achievements, which are generally recognized as wholly the result of the conscientious effort and the devotion to duty that inspired confidence and secured success. We urge your consideration of the foregoing in the interest of efficient and progressive government and invite your co-operation in nominating J. Henry Goetze for Congress.

RIDDLED LINEUP IS PATCHED BY HALLORAN

BERRY IS SOUGHT

WORRY of the management and disgust of fans will cease Sunday if the Lima Independents secure three new players to bolster the riddled lineup. The local baseball situation now hinges on the trio: Earl Berry, "Nig" McMullen and either Marty Becker or Mike Crohan of Findlay.

The first half of the season presented pitchers of advanced age, broken arms and inexperience, and the fact that Berry looms on the horizon is one of the most encouraging things that has happened lately in the course of baseball events here.

Berry twirled three of the best games last fall ever pitched from a local hilltop. Spenceville then claimed him, alleging early-season promises made it imperative that he pitch three October contests for them. Berry consented even against his own inclination, realizing the move would be misunderstood by fans.

There never has been friction between the management and Berry over the deal. Manager Bernie Halloran says, nor cessation of personal friendship.

Halloran and Berry will get together tomorrow night to discuss the matter. No opportunity has been found to obtain a definite answer from the pitcher, who has become interested since his appearance here three weeks ago in a patent his brother in Toledo has taken out on a novelty. He will not return this season to the Eastern minor league team with which he was identified since the start of the baseball year, but will devote most of his time in assisting with the marketing of the move.

IS WILLING In a statement to The Lima News, Berry said: "The management of the Lima team is the best I have ever worked for. Lima fans always treated me fine and if I can give the home team a lift in its efforts to come thru with a winner the remainder of the season I will be willing to contribute my hardest work. I am in the best shape I have ever been and am confident the going will be hard for the clubs who have been getting away with games here."

Two weeks ago Berry left the strong Van Wert club down with three hits, striking out 13. He allowed but a pair of bingles Sunday pitching for Spenceville against Delphos.

"NIG" IN SHAPE McMullen, the Mansfield first sacker who made a good showing here early in the season, again is in shape after being laid up for several months with a broken leg. The husky player has tested the leg on Mansfield diamonds and found it as good as ever.

Becker is the "semi-pro star the local outfit has been after for some time. Crohan is regarded as such a good possibility by Halloran that he may use him in the infield. He is a first sacker.

After a first sacker of a month, Bernie Halloran is back in the city and will devote all the time necessary to get the club in working order.

PIRATES DO UP GIANTS LIKE M'GRAW MEN DID 'EM IN '21

By HENRY L. FARRELL

NEW YORK—About this time last year, the Pittsburgh Pirates steaming along in first place, had all their aspirations beaten out of them when the New York Giants sailed in and took five straight games from them.

The same Pirates steamed out of New York yesterday after having given John McGraw's Giants four of the worst drubbings the New Yorkers have ever been thru.

CAME THRU The Giants came thru the critical series with the St. Louis Cards with a good lead of three games and they came up with the feeling that the decisive blow of the season had been struck and that they were "in".

The team then collapsed completely, lost five games in a row and McGraw is now clutching to a slim four-point lead.

Prospects are none too bright. The Cubs are coming and behind them are Pat Moran's Cincinnati Reds, two clubs that always give the Giants plenty of trouble.

DOUGLAS OFF Phil Douglas, who has been going fine all season, is off again on one of his periodicals and the rest of the pitching staff is in bad shape.

McGraw has been away from the team for more than a week, with a bad cold and things went far from right while he was away. It was shown during his absence that McGraw is the Giants.

While the Giants are slipping, the Yanks look almost like they have slipped for the season. They are losing distance steadily and there is no promise that Huggins will be able

Once Great Boxer Stakes All on Horse Races; Loses and Is Broken on Wheel of Fortune

CLABBY POSSESSED $50,000—THE IDOL OF AMERICAN AND AUSTRALIAN FANS—AND 22 SOCIETY

(BY ROY GROVE)

JIMMY CLABBY, formerly the greatest boxer of thousands of proud possessor of thousands of dollars made in more than 100 ring battles, once the idol of the American and Australian ring fans, seems through.

He is on his way back to his home in Hammond, Ind.

It was not so many years ago that Jimmy could have named his own price for an appearance in the ring. The house would crowd and he would never disappoint.

And yet, the other night he was thrown out of a Seattle ring by a referee who thought he was not trying against an opponent.

A man whom he could have kay-ed in his younger days in a single round.

And still more, his purse was held up, and further yet a small purse of $75. An amount far less than he received in his preliminary days back in 1906.

In Clabby's halmy days he had thousands when he fought such men as Mike Gibbons, Sullivan, Le Darcere, twice at 20 rounds, and others as great.

But Jimmy had the money. He took an interest in the track, bought fine horses and stables. The Clabby colors flew high until the day he staked his all on his winner.

But she raced and fell—and so did Jimmy.

YANKS SLAM INDIANS; CUT BROWN LEAD TO GAME

NEW YORK.—The Yankees by taking the measure of the Cleveland Indians, 5-1, while the Browns were losing a home run hitting tilt to the Athletics, 8-4 have moved to within a game of the league-leading St. Louisans.

Kenneth Williams of the Browns, with his sixth circuit blow in as many days, increased his season total to 22 and now is leading the home run hitters of both major leagues. Hornsby of the Cardinals, previously led with 27. Hauser, McGowan and Miller of the Mackmen, accounted for four base hits in the games.

The Yanks' victory over Cleveland was marked by the hurling of Joe Bush who held the Speakers to two hits, one a single by Jamieson in the first frame and the other a triple by Wamby in the ninth. Wamby was brought home by Speaker's sacrifice fly.

Meusel and Ruth had a batting trolic, the former accounting for a homer and a single and Ruth two two-baggers and a single.

Walter Johnson proved, as usual, too great an enigma for the White Sox and the Senators won 4-1.

The only National League contest between the Cubs and the Phillies, went 15 innings to a 7-7 tie and then was called because of condition of the diamond.

ATTABOY, BILL!

NEW YORK—William Muldon, the czar of boxing in New York, announces that he will insist upon having thousands of seats at two and three dollars if Jack Dempsey and Harry Wills should fight for the heavyweight championship in New York.

His idea is to make it possible for others than Wall Street brokers, steel kings, $700 a week theatrical stars and thriving bootleggers to see the battle.

DR. A. V. SHERAT AT HOME.

TO ALTERNATE WHITE SOX ARE BEST FIGHT SHOWS

BY BILLY EVANS.

I N baseball we hear a lot about the inside stuff. To a large extent it is mere bunk.

"This is the era of swat in base-ball. The lively ball has changed the style of play considerably. Clubs seek to get runs in clusters rather than singly."

Clusters of runs call for slugging, which eliminates much of the so-called inside stuff, or strategy, of the ball field.

Inside stuff is another name for playing smart baseball.

The Cleveland club of the American League under the leadership of Tris Speaker has always played smart baseball. Weak pitching has made it necessary for the club to shift its style to a certain extent in order to overcome the runs made by the opposition because of inferior pitching.

FOR 20 YEARS

Johnny Evers of the Chicago White Sox is one of the brainiest players in the history of the majors. Evers has been watching major league baseball for high on to 20 years.

During the first few weeks of the American League race the Cleveland club was getting pretty good pitching and playing the heads-up baseball for which the club is noted.

After a month or so of play had passed I was interested to know what Evers thought of the American League teams. His reply was brief, but decidedly interesting:

"The Cleveland club plays more real baseball than any club in the majors. On days when Cleveland gets pitching they're close to unbeatable."

PLAYING SMART BALL

Getting back to the inside stuff. One of the big reasons why the Chicago White Sox are winning is because the team is playing smart baseball.

Back of the bat Ray Schalk is catching in his customary brilliant style. His heady coaching has done much to develop the three recruit pitchers, Leverette, Blankenship and Robertson. He has steadily Eardie Schupp, noted for his tendency to be wild. Likewise he has smoothed the rough spots in the pitching of Lodge.

Chicago is getting good pitching. Much of the good pitching is inspired by the brainy Schalk.

In the infield Eddie Collins is handling the situation. On paper the Sox infield may not stand out as some of the other major league clubs, but no infield is playing better ball. Collins is the master-mind.

In the outfield Harry Hooper is the balance wheel for the two clever youngsters, Falk and Mostil. Hooper is a smart ball player.

Red Faber, pitching in the greatest form of his career, is the ace of the White Sox staff, always ready to save the day.

U. S. Nobby Truck—Built especially for commercial service where speed and maximum cushion are required.

U. S. High-Size—More rubber than regular solid, giving greater cushion and greater mileage.

U. S. Mono-Twin—The heavy duty cushion tire for big trucks at moderate speeds over all types of roads.

MUTT AND JEFF—JEFF DOESN'T NEED A GARAGE FOR HIS CAR—

By BUD FISHER

BRINGING UP FATHER—

—BY M. M. MANN

SHORT SHAVINGS

Aus Potter tells about a man who called at Hor's drug store.

He was suffering from a pain in the neck and asked for a tube of mustard paste to rub on it.

"What size?" asked the clerk.

"I don't know the size of my neck," said the patient. "But my collar size is 16."

Lehr Miller helped relatives pick cherries at an orchard in the country.

A step ladder slipped and he was left hanging by his suspenders' belt.

"My complaint," he says, "is that when they come to take me down they sawed off a limb and let me fall."

Patrolman J. P. Kait, out on his beat late at night, had to refer to his police "Book of Rules."

The street was dark. The corner was light, being high.

So he let it down by the rope and stood out in the street to read his book by it.

He happened upon the rule about calling the station from the patrol box at the exact designated minute.

He looked at his watch. Then he gasped, and rushed off to make his call.

He reached the box on time, puffing hard.

Then he remembered that he had forgotten to pull up the light he had lowered to read the book.

He puffed back to the corner, out of breath, and pulled up the light just in time to keep a milk cart from running into it.

"Skull work is hard," he says. "But foot work is harder. I guess I'll have to learn that book of rules by heart."

Harmon Bussert, auto dealer, tells about a man who tried to hang his hat on a restaurant hook instead of on the shelf.

It was hard to get the hat on the hook, because the hook was so small. When he succeeded at last he put the hat thru the brim.

But he was not perturbed. Always look on the brighter side. That is his motto. Every cloud has a silver lining. And all's for the best!

"Well, anyway," he said. "My hat will stay up now."

AIR RAID LISTENERS MADE INTO LOUD SPEAKERS

English authorities have found good use for an instrument of defense which had been discarded as useless after the war.

It is the aerial listener. This consisted of a number of large horns which were directed eastward to catch the whirling sound of hostile airplanes approaching the coast.

The listeners prevented many an air raid on the English coast cities.

because they caught the sound of the enemy engines long before the human ear could.

Now these aerial listeners are being used as radio loud speakers.

The set shown in the photograph was recently used at a military exhibition at Folkestone, England.

Radio messages were sent from airplanes flying above to the field below, where they were magnified by these "listeners."

Wire Stretched Under Ground Works Well as Radio Antenna

By PAUL F. GODLEY

America's Foremost Radio Authority

Radio reception on an underground antenna works successfully. Experiments in this type of aerial were instituted during the war in an effort to reduce static interference.

At one time, the secret service discovered a German plan to cut all cable connections between the United States and Europe.

Trans-oceanic radio became all-important.

Several of the cables were cut. The heavy traffic which radio was then called upon to carry was subjected to great delay because of atmospheric disturbances.

Every competent agency in this country made effort at this time to solve the static riddle.

It was found that a long wire directed toward the station from which it was desired to receive would pick up great signal energies with considerably better signal to static ratio than the ordinary type of tuned antenna.

This wire could not only be laid directly upon the ground, provided it was insulated, but it could even be buried in the ground at a depth of several inches without greatly reducing the strength of the signals.

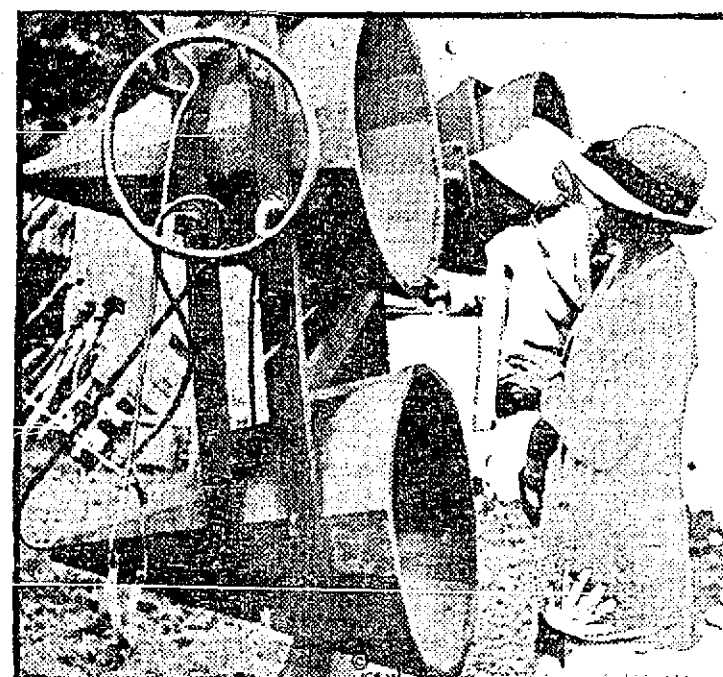

These experiments were carried further and the wire placed under both fresh and salt water. Here attempts were made to receive signals from high-powered European stations with the wire laid at different depths in the water.

The best results were obtained in fresh or only slightly brackish water. When the submersion was too great in the salt water, the signals fell off to a very considerable degree.

Even for the reception of radio-phones broadcasting an antenna of this type may be used. The wire should be thoroughly insulated, and may be buried a few inches or allowed to lie on the soil. The length of the wire should be six to eight hundred feet.

But better results will be had if this same wire is suspended 8 or 10 feet above the earth. It is to be borne in mind that best reception will come from those directions in which the plane of the wire lies.

RADIO PRIMER

AIR CORE TRANSFORMER—A transformer in which there is no metal core. Air cores are often used for transformers for high frequencies, such as those employed in radio communication. At low frequencies only small amounts of power can be conveyed from one coil to another.

Use RESINOL
for a clear skin and good hair

For a skin that is excessively oily, and has coarse, clogged pores, or one that is disfigured by an annoying eruption, there is nothing better than RESINOL.

Bathe first with RESINOL SOAP then apply RESINOL OINTMENT and you can be reasonably sure of a speedy and remarkable improvement.

Resinol Soap used regularly for the shampoo tends to keep the hair lustrous and the scalp free from dandruff. Where there is already a serious accumulation of dandruff, part the hair and rub Resinol Ointment well into the scalp some time before shampooing. At all druggists.
